National File has obtained what a whistleblower has identified as a copy of the complete diary of Ashley Blazer Biden, the 39-year-old daughter of Democrat presidential candidate Joe Biden, dating from during the 2020 presidential campaign. National File also knows the reported precise location of the physical diary, and has been told by a whistleblower that there exists an audio recording of Ashley Biden admitting this is her diary.

In the diary, which our source says belongs to the former vice president's daughter, the author writes of her struggle with drug abuse. Ashley Biden's struggle with drugs was widely publicized in 2009.

According to our source, the diary also details Ashley Biden's unhealthy relationship with sex, and the "probably not appropriate" showers she shared as a young girl with her father, Joe Biden.

After declaring she was "here for sexual trauma" in the previous entry, on page 23 of the diary, dated January 30, 2019, the author explores the topic of sexual abuse and how it may have led to her overactive sex drive. "I've had one of my hardest days – my sex drive is out of f**king control. Like literally, I am in heat," wrote the author.

"I know it's not the healthiest way to deal with things but @ least it's better than drugs," she wrote, adding that she thought she needed "sex to feel good."

1/30/19

So thankful that January is almost over - c'est la vie! 1.27.19 is my date + goddamn it it better be my last. I've had one of my hardest days - my sex drive is out of fucking control. Like literally, I am in heat. I told Kevin the truth about how I was feeling - felt exposed + vulnerable so didn't go to dinner. Needed a break from seeing him. We are supposed to have a therapy session on Monday and I am still unsure of it all. There is a piece of me that wishes

The author then explored why she felt this need to have sex, saying she believes she was molested as a child.

“Was I molested. I think so – I can’t remember specifics but I do remember trauma,” wrote the author, before listing a series of potential incidents, one of which may have included Ashley Biden’s cousin Caroline Biden, as the author says she remembers “being somewhat sexualized” alongside a person named “Caroline.”

The author then wrote that she remembers “showers with my dad” that were “probably not appropriate.”

I didn't have to do it. But maybe it would be healing and then again maybe it would open up more wounds that will take me longer to adjust + get over with. I was going to give it a few days + see how I feel. I erased his number from my phone - so can't contact him unless he is to contact me which he won't. I think I need to have sex in order to feel good about not having sex + to get it over with. Neil's friend is a sex addict which might work out well.

I know its not the healthiest way to deal with things but @ least its better then drugs. I am focused on myself + my needs + sex seems - @ least - at this moment to be one of them. I don't know if I even need to kiss a guy - just come over + fuck me - so be it. I think I'm going to go to the AA meeting tomorrow night. And maybe he will be there? Maybe not. But I have always been gay crazy. I remember pulling up my skirt in 2nd grade and showing the boys my underpants. Hyper-Sexualized @ a young age. What is this due to? Was I molested. I think so - I can't remember specifics but I do remember trauma - I remember not liking the workzacks house; I remember somewhat being sexualized with carline; I remember having sex with friends @ a young age; Showers w/ my dad (probably not appropriate); Being turned on when I wasn't suppose to be. I remember the Q-tips - I hated getting my ears clean; hearing my vagina due to overhearing parents having sex; What made me so attached? - my mother not emotionally available - my father was - message - I could get love from men. - "I'm not your mother" - Blanket being taken away - not letting myself go to bathroom - Being wiped until too late in the game - I could list all the reasons - But I can't seem to find

On page 83, in an entry dated July 22, 2019, the author wrote that she received a phone call from her father, Joe Biden according to our source, who cried on the phone while expressing his worry for her in the days leading up to July 30-31 Democratic Primary Debate.

“My dad cried on the phone saying he has the debate in a week and ‘Now has to worry about [the author],” she wrote.

“And he cried. Maybe he knows what he is doing and it’s worked but my feelings of guilt often are overwhelming.”

giving "in" to the urges. And that's the first step in getting "clean" + "clear". It's sad the feelings I have produced in others. My Dad cried on the phone saying he has the debate in a week + "Now has to worry about you." And he cried. Maybe he knows what I is doing + it's worked but my feelings of guilt often are overwhelming. I have to just do what is needed to stay determined, strong, + healthy. It's now out of my system.

In at least two entries, the author explicitly identifies herself as Ashley Blazer Biden.

You will have all you desire! Trust the Process. Trust yourself + your ability to manifest all...

to manifest all your Dreams. Yw go this,
Ashley Blazer Biden

The day ended up on a positive note. Had a great clinical day.
The lesson that I learned is I am extra completely "put together" and could run the group. OK I am the 6 year old little girl on the bench. There needs to be a happy medium. I don't have to be completely closed off or completely immature, dependent, and young. A good skill for me is when I am feeling the little girl wants to respond. I acknowledge this. I am Ashley Blazer Biden + I recognize my 5 year old self. I acknowledge her but the grown-up version of me is now going to address her while caring for her.
I was given the hunger games to read as an assignment.
Linn is actually coming around + being sweetie. It's interesting how there are two very distinct sides of me that I would like to meld together. Tomorrow is going to be a great day. Getting up early, multitasking +
boxing, full clinical day and meeting with Spence - that meeting - business meeting.

National File obtained this document from a whistleblower who was concerned the media organization that employs him would not publish this potential critical story in the final 10 days before the 2020 presidential election. National File's whistleblower also has a recording of Ashley Biden admitting the diary is hers, and employed a handwriting expert who verified the pages were all written by Ashley. National File has in its possession a recording of this whistleblower detailing the work his media outlet did in preparation of releasing these documents. In the recording, the whistleblower explains that the media organization he works for chose not to release the documents after receiving pressure from a competing media organization.

This diary surfaces after Hunter Biden, the son of the Democrat presidential candidate, Joe Biden, has been exposed as having “underage obsessions” and corrupt business dealings as evidenced by emails and images provided by the New York Post and former New York Mayor Rudy Giuliani.

National File, as the media organization that published reports about the Pelosi family’s Ukraine dealings and the potentially illegal affairs of Democrat Senate candidate Cal Cunningham, believes the public has a right to read these entries that were obtained for National File by Patrick Howley, the reporter who broke the Veterans Affairs scandal, and the Ralph Northam racist yearbook photo.

Last year Ashley Biden was profiled by The List, which claimed that her “transformation is turning heads.” She was credited as working as a “social worker, activist, and entrepreneur.”
