

Warning: My Pastor Questioned this video which takes too many liberties with Holy Scripture. He said that the bonds of Psalm 2:1-12 do not refer to DNA mechanisms, but to God's authority in Messiah. To make it refer to DNA is to go beyond the intent of Scripture. It is eisegesis. (Eisegesis is the process of interpreting text in such a way as to introduce one's own presuppositions, agendas or biases).

I knew this to some degree when I posted it. She refers to the Book Of Revelations (plural) Instead of Revelation, which is a common mistake made by baby Christians.

Also, the implication is that those who took the VaXXine(s) are disconnected from God taken over by satan at the genetic level, which is NOT true. Yes, the VaXXine does literally change one's DNA, but to suggest it displaced God in your body does not align with Holy Scripture, Romans 8:37-39. Many Christians, true Born Again Believers were deceived or coerced into taken the VaXXine which on their own would never have done.

The strong delusion is not referring to a VaXXine, but refers to that which God sends, whereas they are damned:

2 Thessalonians 2:9-15

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

Benson writes: The lie here intended by the Spirit of God, Macknight thinks, “Is the monstrous lie of transubstantiation, or of the conversion of the bread and wine in the Lord’s supper into the real identical body and blood of Christ (in the satanic Roman Catholic Mass,) through the will of the (satanic) Priest accompanying his pronouncing the words of institution; notwithstanding there is no change whatever produced in the accidents or sensible qualities of these substances. This impudent fiction is not only a palpable contradiction to the senses and reason of mankind, but a most pernicious falsehood, being the chief foundation of that fictitious power of pardoning sin, and of saving or damning men according to their own pleasure, which the Romish ecclesiastics have blasphemously arrogated to themselves, and by which they make men utterly negligent of holiness, and of all the ordinary duties of life. That they all might be damned — Iva κριθωσι, might be judged, or condemned; that is, the consequence of which will be, that, having filled up the measure of their iniquity, they will at length fall into just condemnation; who believed not the truth — Received not the Gospel in faith, love, and obedience; but had pleasure in unrighteousness — In corrupt passions and vicious practices. The original expression, ευδοκησαντες signifies both to take pleasure in a thing, and to approve of it. “From this we learn that it is not the simple ignorance of truth which exposes men to damnation. In many cases this may be no fault in the ignorant. But it is men’s refusing to believe, through their taking pleasure in unrighteousness, which will prove fatal to them; for a disposition of that sort renders the wicked altogether incurable.” Such is the interpretation which Bishop Newton, in his admirable work on the Prophecies, Dr. Macknight, and many other approved commentators, have given of this famous prophecy; an interpretation which applies with great ease to all the facts and circumstances mentioned in it, and is perfectly consistent in all its parts, which no other interpretation invented by learned men can be shown to be. The passage is evidently a prediction, as the above-mentioned divines have fully proved, of the corruptions of Christianity, “which began to be introduced into the church in the Apostle’s days, and wrought secretly all the time the heathen magistrates persecuted the Christians, but which showed themselves more openly after the empire received the faith of Christ, A.D. 312, and by a gradual progress ended in the monstrous errors and usurpations of the bishops of Rome, when the restraining power of the Emperors was taken out of the way, by the incursions of the barbarous nations, and the breaking of the empire into the ten kingdoms prefigured by the ten horns of Daniel’s fourth beast.” To be convinced of this, the reader need only compare the rise and progress of the Papal tyranny with the descriptions of the man of sin, and of the mystery of iniquity here given, and with the prophecies of Daniel. In the bishops of Rome all the characters and actions ascribed by Daniel to the little horn, and by Paul to the lawless one, are clearly united. "For, according to the strong working of Satan, with all power and signs, and miracles of falsehood, they have opposed Christ, and exalted themselves above all that is called God, or an object of worship; and have long sat in the temple of God as God, showing themselves that they are God; that is, they exercise the power and prerogatives of God. And seeing, in the acquisition and exercise of their spiritual tyranny, they have trampled upon all laws, human and divine, and have encouraged their votaries in the most enormous acts of wickedness, the Spirit of God hath, with the greatest propriety, given them the appellations of the man of sin, the son of perdition, and the lawless one. Further, as it is said that the man of sin was to be revealed in his season, there can be little doubt that the dark ages, in which all learning was overturned by the irruption of the northern barbarians, were the season allotted to the man of sin for revealing himself. Accordingly we know that in these ages the corruptions of Christianity, and the usurpations of the clergy, were carried to the greatest height. In short, the annals of the world cannot produce persons and events, to which the things written in this passage can be applied with so much fitness, as to the bishops of Rome. Why then should we be in any doubt concerning the interpretation and application of this famous prophecy?" — Macknight.

Jamieson-Fausset-Brown writes: For this cause—because "they received not the love of the truth." The best safeguard against error is "the love of the truth."

shall send—Greek, "sends," or "is sending"; the "delusion" is already beginning. God judicially sends hardness of heart on those who have rejected the truth, and gives them up in righteous judgment to Satan's delusions

Isaiah 6:9, 10; Romans 1:24-26, 28

They first cast off the love of the truth, then God gives them up to satan's delusions, then they settle down into "believing the lie": an awful climax which is denying the revelation of the Holy Spirit shown in Holy Scripture, the Holy Bible, which is the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit which is the unforgivable sin, <https://www.alemattec.com/Blasphemy-against-the-Holy-Spirit-shall-NOT-be-forgiven-unto-men--.doc>.

1 Kings 22:22-23; Ezekiel 14:9; Job 12:16; Matthew 24:5, 11; 1 Timothy 4:1-6; Romans 1:28

Matthew Henry writes:

Something hindered or withheld the man of sin. It is supposed to be the power of the Roman empire, which the Apostle did not mention more plainly at that time. Corruption of doctrine and worship came in by degrees, and the usurping of power was gradual; thus the mystery of iniquity prevailed. Superstition and idolatry were advanced by pretended devotion, and bigotry and persecution were promoted by pretended zeal for God and his glory. This mystery of iniquity was even then begun; while the Apostles were yet living, persons pretended zeal for Christ, but really opposed him. The fall or ruin of the antichristian state is declared. The pure word of God, with the Spirit of God, will discover this mystery of iniquity, and in due time it shall be destroyed by the brightness of Christ's coming. Signs and wonders, visions and miracles, are pretended; but they are false signs to support false doctrines; and lying wonders, or only pretended miracles, to cheat the people; and the diabolical deceits with which the antichristian state has been supported, are notorious. The persons are described, who are his willing subjects. Their sin is this; They did not love the truth, and therefore did not believe it; and they were pleased with false notions. God leaves them to themselves, then sin will follow of course, and spiritual judgments here, and eternal punishments hereafter. These prophecies have, in a great measure, come to pass, and confirm the truth of the Scriptures. This passage exactly agrees with the system of popery, as it prevails in the Romish church, and under the Romish popes. But though the son of perdition has been revealed, though he has opposed and exalted himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; and has spoken and acted as if he were a god upon earth, and has proclaimed his insolent pride, and supported his delusions, by lying miracles and all kinds of frauds; still the Lord has not yet fully destroyed him with the brightness of his coming; that and other prophecies remain to be fulfilled before the end shall come.

John 6:30-58

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

Note: If following the satanic Roman Catholic Transubstantiation when you take their false, satanic breaden 'god' of their Eucharist you should never have to eat again nor ever be hungry, if this was the physical body of Christ Jesus.

The Lord Jesus Christ said, " . . . he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst (both are spiritual, not physically done by God to those who come to the Lord Jesus Christ alone as Lord, God, and Savior).

The satanic Jews thought here that Christ Jesus was speaking of his physical body and blood that they had to become cannibals against God's Law. Same with the satanic Romans and they do (hocus-pocus--Nonsense or sham used especially to cloak deception,) by telling people that the 'priest' has the authority/power to Command the Lord Jesus Christ to come down from Heaven and to enter into a breaden waffer; when you eat the wafer you are literally physically becoming a cannibal against God's Law, and eating the physical body of the Lord Jesus Christ). Again, mixing up physical with spiritual, as did Nicodemus concerning the new birth, John 3:1-21.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

Note: Again, the Jewish leadership saw the Lord Jesus Christ physically, but could not understand Him speaking Spiritually. Because they, like the Roman Catholic 'church' after them are not Spiritual, but are natural men -- those earthly, not Saved, not of God with His Holy Spirit, 1 Corinthians 2:14, to them Jesus Christ was foolish, they could not know Him, because to know Christ Jesus requires God's Holy Spirit be in them.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

Note: Physical food (they did again hunger, and they died) which Christ Jesus was saying, eat (spiritually my body) and drink (spiritually my blood) and you'll never hunger or thirst (for righteousness,) as you'll have Christ Jesus' righteousness which will fill you forever, Matthew 5:6, by His propitiation!

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

Note: Directly above, spiritually speaking.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

Note: Spiritually, not physically. Physically when they ate the Manna that represented the Lord Jesus Christ, but turned from the Manna and demanded other food, they were in fact denying the Lord Jesus Christ and they were spiritually dead.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
